Biography of Malcolm Golding Creative Director

Originally from England, Malcolm Golding came to Hong Kong in the early eighties. Upon arriving, one of his first commissions was to paint several vast murals in the newly-built Kowloon Shangri-La Hotel lobby. The vast mural was reported in National Geographic Magazine. What began as a labour of love blossomed into many more commissions and today his work can be seen in hotels throughout Japan, Hong Kong and many countries in Asia.

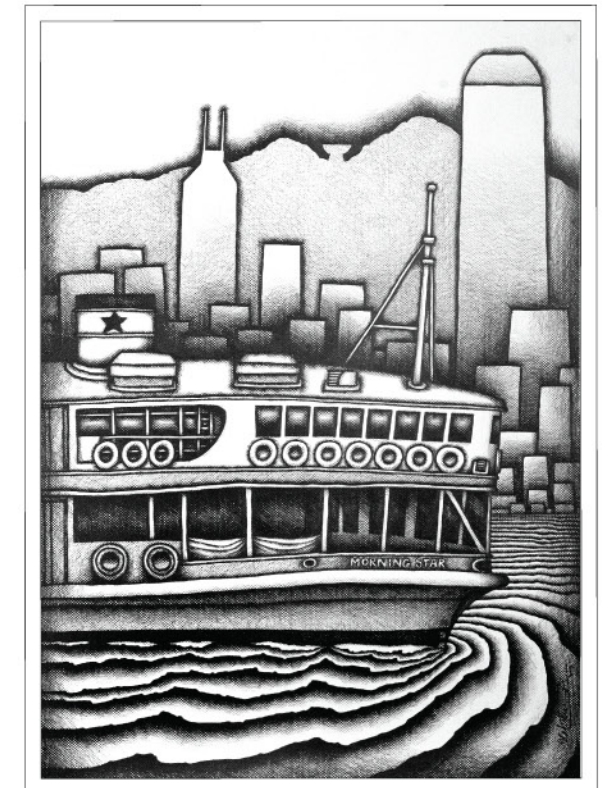

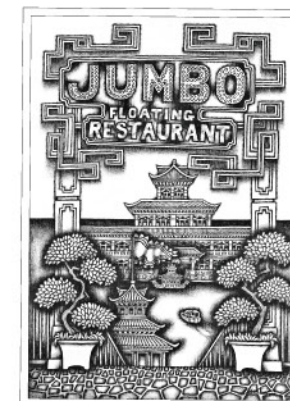

Malcolm is well known for creating his own individual style. His work includes large paintings for public areas, fashion and print design, theatre and interior designs and fine artwork.

He is a mature and versatile artist with a deep feeling for the spiritual energy in the visual world and continues to simplify this approach with his work.

Recent work includes designing the flagship store for JMStyle at Hong Kong's Cyberport complex. The concept of the store is theatrical in nature, with gentle lighting and an overall ambience that reflects a sense of style and discerning sense of affordable luxury.

Malcolm's artistic philosophy is to aesthetically please without forcing your attention. This is not as easy as it appears, however with many years of experience, his unique sensibility allows him to create, comfortable yet highly practical environments incorporating JMStyle's furniture collections.
